

: تعلن عن عقد دورة تدريبية بعنوان
LEED GA Intensive Exam Preparation:
Key Terms & What you need To Know

Date: From 17-18 February 2018

Location: Jeddah | KSA

About the course:

Preparing for the LEED Green Associate exam can be daunting. There is so much information out there, knowing what to study can be confusing. This course will help you focus on the important information you need to take and pass the LEEDv4 Green Associate Exam. Covers an overview and delves into the knowledge areas of synergistic opportunities & integrative design.

Outlines:

- Understand the structure of the LEED rating system.
- Discuss integrative design and its advantages over conventional processes.
- Describe the effects of buildings on the environment, human health and economics.
- Review standards which the LEED rating system is based on.
- Review the LEED credits requirements.
- Understand the impact of place on sustainability.
- Describe the strategies and approaches to reduce transportation impacts.
- Discuss the different types of water sources, uses and conservation strategies encouraged by LEED.
- Understand the way buildings use energy & opportunities for conservation.
- Review the LEED credit requirements for energy and atmosphere conservation.
- Review what defines healthy products in the built environment.
- Define how materials that are healthy for both human beings and the environment fit into LEED v.4
- Discuss the impact of product on Indoor Air Quality.